RESEARCH PROJECTS

<https://www.imjohnsonphd.com>

Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCU) – Temple University

2014-Present: Principal Investigator. Launched Phase III of the National HBCU Alumni Study, a qualitative exploration of college choice processes and early career outcomes of HBCU alumni from a diverse array of institutions.

Temple Education Scholars – Temple University

2019-Present: Co-PI with Juliet Curci, PhD. Engaged in the ongoing research-based evaluation of the “Temple Education Scholars” (TES) Dual Enrollment Program, an initiative to support college access and enrollment into teacher education programs among culturally and linguistically diverse Philadelphia high school students. The project aims gain a robust perspective on the activities associated with TES Program and the outcomes of program participants.

Caste in College, 2022-2024: Co-PI with Sharron Scott, EdD. A qualitative exploration of the experiences of Black faculty members and their relegation to race-related roles in higher education.

Investigating Ivy, 2019-2022: Co-PI with Sharron Scott, EdD. This study explored the college transition process and experiences of Black students attending highly selective “Ivy League” colleges and universities.

Black and "All But Dissertation" (ABD): 2017- 2020: Co-PI with Sharron Scott, EdD. An exploration of the barriers experiences by Black doctoral students navigating PhD and EdD programs.
